Welcome to the RCHK Jazz Band! We are very excited that you will be a member this year. This will be our most challenging year, but it could be very rewarding!

As part of this ensemble, you are expected to be a model IB student. There is a high expectation that all students will demonstrate enthusiasm, commitment, respect and cooperation. You should be principled during the rehearsals, and display your commitment by arriving to all rehearsals on time, and by practicing your music and submitting assignments regularly so that you can contribute to a productive and enjoyable rehearsal.

For the ensemble to function effectively, all participating students must adhere to the expectations we have set. Consistent failure to do so may result in a student being asked to leave the ensemble.

In order to acknowledge the expectations set, all members of the band need to fill out the form below and return it to Mr. Niermeier during the next band rehearsal. Please also paste the following calendar into your planners for your reference.

Smartmusic: An essential part of our learning this year will be the use of this music software designed to help you learn while you practice at home during the week. We have a very limited time per week together, and our success relies on everybody working on the music outside of rehearsals.
